Dear Mr. Krum:

The Executive Office for United States Attorneys recently forwarded to me a letter from Inspector General John Adair, Resolution Trust Corporation. In the letter, Mr. Adair commended your outstanding efforts in the prosecution of United States v. James M. Claassen and D. Richard Claassen.

I, too, would like to thank you for your perseverance and diligence. I appreciate the time you sacrificed to prepare for this case.

Your professionalism and dedication helped the Department accomplish its mission. Thank you for a job well done.

Sincerely,
